KANSAS CITY TOOK ONE GAME FROM MINNEAPOLIS YESTERDAY.

Meredith Was Forced to Retire From the Box in the First Game and Pardee Was Hit as Hard-Gear in Good Form.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., July 2-(Special.) The Millers had a walkaway in the first of this afternoon's games with the Blues. As yesterday they batted the ball unmercifully, disposing of one of the op-posing pitchers and hitting the second one

Southpaw Meredith started the pitching for Kansas City but lasted only three indoubles, but by great field work the score substituted for Meredith, and was treated to a warm reception, the Minneapolis slug-gers hitting as hard and as often as be-

The heavy slaughter carried on by the Millers in the first two games of the series was brought to an abrupt ending when Collegian Gear came into the box to pitch the second contest of the afternoon. On the other hand, the Blues touched up Cook in lively fashion, and, by bunching hits, were enabled to win in a canter.

In the third inning the Blues secured a lead which was not overcome during the game. Two bases on balls and four singles gave them a good start. In the seventh two runs were added on a single and two doubles. Cook was hit hard in the eighth, when three long singles were good for as many runs.

The Millers scored one of their two runs in the fourth on a single and a passed ball after one man had reached first. In the last inning of the game the other run came in, Letcher scoring on Lally's hit. With the bases full Gear retired the side without further scoring. The score:

The Games Won and Lost by Western League Teams During

During the month of June the Blues made a strong advance in the league race, and had a better record for the thirty days than any team in the league. They took three out of four games from the Cincinnapolis leaders, the only two games played with Columbus in June, three out of six from St. Paul, five out of six from Detroit, and three out of four from Minneapolis. All of the games, but three of the four with St. Paul, were played on the home grounds. With the teams that have spent most of the time on the road, Columbus has the best record, with Milwaukee a good second. Omaha has made good gains, and jumped from the tail end good gains, and jumped from the air end position to sixth place. St. Paul has won just two more than half the games played, and the Brush leaders have broken even. Neither Detroit nor Minneapolis have fared well. The following table shows the record of games played during the month of June by all the teams in the Western League:

Detroit ... It is yet undecided what city will secure the Omaha franchise and the Fisher team, for which Des Moines, Rockford, Peoria and St. Joseph are candidates. It is not probable that St. Joseph will secure the

NEW YORK, July 2.-Yale defeated Harvard at th Polo grounds to-day in the deciding game of the co lege championship. Most of the work on both side was done by the batteries, the execution of both pitchers being brilliant. In close places Captain Greenway was more steady than his vis-a-vis, and but few evidences of his "glass arm" remain. Yale' three tallies and Harvard's only score were the direct result of errors. RED AND BLUE WAS VICTORIOUS IN THE BOAT RACE.

Winners of New London Race Defeated-Wisconsin's Great Showing-Cornell Was Second in the

'Varsity Race.

SARATOGA LAKE, N. Y., July 2.-The freshmen and 'varsity race of the Inter-collegiate Rowing Association were rowed, two and three mile courses respectively. The Cornell freshmen won the first contest in 10:51 3-5, three and one-half lengths through a splendid spurt in the stretch which put her boat slightly over a quarter of a length ahead of the Quaker boat.

Pennsylvania, pulling the only paper shell used in the contest, won the 'varsity race by three and one-half lengths in the remarkable time of 15:511/2. Cornell got into second place after a lively sprint with Wisconsin, leading the Westerners nearly a length. Columbia paddled across the line four and one-half lengths behind Wisconsin.

The quadrangular race developed surprises, notably Pennsylvania's victory over Cornell and Wisconsin's heading off the others all through the first mile and her remarkably good work from the standpoint others all through the first mile and her remarkably good work from the standpoint of the disadvantage under which her members suffered by reason of a long journey so near the time for the race.

The four 'varsity crews were at their respective stake boats and ready for the word as soon as the referees' boat reached the starting place, at 10:35 o'clock. At the pistol shot Columbia took the water first with a 35 stroke, Pennsylvania second with 40, Wisconsin third with 33, and Cornell last with 34. Before a half dozen lengths had been rowed, the Wisconsin boys, with their "yard" stroke, had forged to the front, and at the half mile had a lead of one-half a length. Cornell, who was traling in the rear, put on a spurt, and was almost on equal terms with Columbia, which was second. In this way they reached the flag, which they passed, with Wisconsin a length in the lead and rowing a stroke that was pulshing the boat through the water at a terrific rate of speed. Wisconsin, Cornell and Columbia were rowing a 34 stroke and the Pennsylvania 33.

As the crews approached the second mile were rowing a 33 stroke and the rennsylvania 38.

As the crews approached the second mile Pennsylvania went up with a rush, rowing a thirty-eight stroke, and before the two mile flag had been reached took the lead from Wisconsin. The Wisconsin boys pluckily held on to second place, rowing a thirty-four stroke. It was at this juncture that Cornell was seen to "shoot their bolt." Colson called on the men to go after Pennsylvania. The men responded with a will, but their reserve force, which was so apparent in the New London contest, did not show itself, and while they go! up on even terms with the Wisconsin boys, it was seen that the Quakers were beyond their reach. In the last mile Pennsylvania skimmed over the water like a swallow, crossing three and a half lengths in the lead. Cornell and the Wisconsin boys had a desperate fight over every inch of the last mile for second place, the difference being less than a length.

For some reason, not made clear, the official timekeepers did not take the time at the half miles in either race or even at the half miles in either race or even at the mile in the 'varsity.

Pennsylvania's time in the 'varsity establishes a new record for three miles. The previous record was held by an English eight, that did the distance in 15:45 on Cayuga lake, which they call the home waters record. It was not in competition, however, and is not of record. The official time recorded in the two races was as follows:

BEAT HIS OWN RECORD. Eddle MeDuffee Defeats Jimmie Mi-

records from one to tifteen miles inclusive took a sudden drop at Charles River park this afternoon, when Eddle McDuffee, of Boston, defeated Jimmy Michael, the tiny cyclist, who has long held the title of champion of the world.

It is possible that the race might have had a different ending, but for an accident which befell Michael early in the race, while in the lead, his handle bars becoming loose, and he was forced to leave the track for another machine, which proved to be in little better condition than the other. McDuffee had gained a full lap during the transfer, and as Michael could do nothing with his new machine, he left the track, coming on again after the machine had been repaired, but not in any sense a competitor. He rode in all six and two-thirds miles.

been repaired, but not in any sense a competitor. He rode in all six and two-thirds miles.

McDuffee continued to reel off the miles during all this time, cutting record after record until at the end of the fifteenth mile and the race he was 29.3-5 seconds better than the world's record held by himself.

The men took their positions and at the word were off like a flash. Michael caught his team first, and opened up a gap of forty yards before McDuffee was well started. The pace was terrific, and at the end of the first mile the watches recorded 1:46.2-5, against 1:43.3-5, the former world's record, made by Elkes in his race with Martin one week ago. The two miles were ridden in 2:24.3-5, a gain of 0:04.3-5 on the previous two-mile record. Michael had added two more records to his credit, when his machine went down and he was out of the race. McDuffee here took the lead, and the killing pace did not abate. He continually urged his pacemakers on, and every mile clipped a second or two from the previous record. The bell announced the last mile of the race, and his pacemakers exerted themselves to the utmost as they swung into the stretch on the last lap. McDuffee pulled out a spurt and headed the team across the tape in 26:30.3-5.

Cooper, Eaton and Major Taylor riding in the final heat. Gardiner and Baid failed to qualify in the preliminary heats.

The race was a close one throughout. Stevens took the lead at the start, with Kiser second, Cooper third, Taylor fourth and Eaton last. These positions were unchanged until the last lap of the second mile, when Cooper went to the front. Coming into the stretch they were all bunched but Cooper managed to keep his lead and crossed the tape a winner with less than a wheel's length to spare. Stevens was second, Major Taylor a close third, Kiser fourth and Eaton last. The time was 4:17-5.

Cooper, Bourotte, Gardiner and Baid were on the scratch in a half mile handicap event, but none of them was in the first flight at the finish. It was a close race between Kimble, Kiser and Major Taylor. Kimble won by about a foot from Kiser, with Taylor third.

Fred J. Titus, of New York, in an exhibition ride of five miles, unpaced, against time, lowered the world's record for five miles. His time was 11:36-1-5. The former record was 11:38.

YOUNG HALSTEAD HURT.

form, was making an attempt to lower the quarter-mile paced record when the accident occurred.

It appears that a triplet that was pacing him swung out too far on the first bank and accidentally crowded Haistead with terrific force into the fence on the turn.

Halstead struck the railing head down, and was hurled backward on the embankment. It was found that Halstead's front teeth were all broken off, his gums cut, a

The surprise of the week in turf circles was the defeat of Pink Coat and Han D'Or, the Derby winners, by Talbott Bros. 3 year-old colt, John Bright, in the Himyar stakes at Latonia, Thursday. There were but three entries. Because of his victories in the St. Louis and Chicago derbys, Pink Coat was rated as the horse of the year, and, naturally enough, was favortie in the betting at Cincinnatl. Han D'Or also had his backers, and by those who staked their money on Pink Coat after a fierce drive on the stretch, and after having passed Han D'Or. The achievement of the horse from the Talbott stables places him in the front rank among the swift racers of the year.

Jim Corbett and "Kid" McCoy have not yet come to terms for a bout and the meeting held in New York last week resulted simply in talk. The sticking points are the place of fighting and the size of the purse. Milton Gray, representing McCoy, said he had been authorized to state that the Hawthorne club, of Buffalo, would offer $12,500 for the fight. John S. Barnes, for a London club. offered a purse of $15,000, and Tom O'Rourke, of the Lenox club, and Sam Austin, of the Brondway club, both of this city, offered $20,000 for the fight. Gray said that McCoy would not fight at O'Rourke's club and intimated pretty strongly that McCoy wanted Buffalo or nothing. Corbett poo-hooed the idea that he would fight for a $12,500 purse and said McCoy ought to be grateful to get the chance to meet him. The idea of McCoy being called champion was nonsense. Then Corbett grew reminiscent and told what he had done as a fighter. He finally advised Gray to ascertain just how much the Buffalo club would offer for a bout, and the latter agreed to do so and report in a few days.

EARLY SETTLERS MET BENEATH LEAFY FOREST TREES.

Beautiful Home of Colonel M. J. Payne

at Twenty-eighth and Main the Scene of an Enjoyable Gathering Last Night. The most enjoyable meeting of the Early Settlers and Historical Association was that held last night at the beautiful home of Colonel M. J. Payne, at Twenty-eighth and Main streets. The spacious grounds were brightly lighted with Japanese lanterns and in the center of a magnificent grove of great forest trees a huge pyramid of red, white and blue gas jets shed their variegated light upon the large group of early settlers and their families who had accepted Colonel Payne's graceful hospi-tality. Light refreshments were served during the evening and the programme was interspersed with several selections by a quartette composed of Mrs. Kate Conway and Misses Lucy Whitney, Margaret Haney and Lulu Dose. Miss Lucy Whitney ren-

Mr. Chick is one of the oldest settlers in Jackson county, com-ing here in 1836. Only three persons are living here now who were here when Mr. Chick came and they are Allen B. H. Mc-

Mr. Chick maintained that the name had been given to Kansas City in 1838 and that, therefore, the city could not have been named after the state of Kansas, but after the Kansas or Kaw river. He gave an interesting bit of history in showing that the historic and odoriferous O, K. creek had got its name from this sign placed over the gate to a wagonyard kept by a man named Hamilton: "O. K. Drive in."

A memorial on the late Major W. A. M. Vaughan was read by Hon. J. V. C. Karnes, in which a glowing tribute was paid to Major Vaughan's worth as a citizen.

Among those who were present with members of their families were Major Warner, Colonel D. S. Twitchell, E. Stine, Colonel R. H. Hunt, Colonel R. T. Van Horn, T. M. James, J. S. Chick, Dr. F. B. Nofsinger, Louis Hammerslough, Colonel E. S. Jewett, Dr. G. W. Fitzpatrick, Judge S. P. Twiss, S. C. Fancher, Ed O'Flaherty, E. R. Hunter, Frank Muchlschuester, C. W. Whitehead, R. E. Wilson.

"Old Liberty Bell." is the title and theme of a handsomely illustrated advertising souvenir just issued by N. W. It is devoted to a description and history of this famous bell which proclaimed liberty throughout all the land and unto all the inhabitants thereof. Among other statements in the souvenir this striking one is found:

"The ringing days of the good old bell are over. While its tongue has long been silent, its great message is marching onnever more vigorously than to-day, only the duty of proclaiming it has now fallen upon the press of America. No revolution in all history can surpass the peaceful, but no less wonderful, revolution of the printing press, by which knowledge of the world's deeds and the world's needs is made available at all times to all men."

The club has lately secured a quantity of cricket material which is kept for the use of members at Wright's geyser spring, near the practice ground.

The surprise expressed at the result of the Sharkey-Ruhlin fight was not so much at the fact that Ruhlin was defeated as that either man was given a decision before any fouling was done. Whether Sharkey was sincere in his challenge to Fitzsimmons and Corbett, or not, his disposal of Ruhlin in less than three minutes entitles his claim to recognition to respectful consideration. Sharkey is said to be trying to live down his past had reputation and his fairness in the bout with Ruhlin won him friends.
